

I do not want you to allow LPFM stations to take priority over current translator services. I currently listen to K-LOVE and no other radio stations. I really enjoy the music and information provided by K-LOVE and feel others benefit from it as well. Even though it is a national versus local station, I think the benefits from the station are tremendous to those who want a truly wonderful Christian radio station and can't find it in their own community.